

The Dr Howell Rees Scholarships - Medicine

These Scholarships (which also incorporates the Dr Howell Rees Scholarships - General) are provided from the income of a bequest made to the University of Wales by the late Howell Rees CBE MRCS LRCP (1847-1933) of Cardiff.

Scholarship in Medicine

1. A “Dr Howell Rees Scholarship” for Medical Students will be awarded triennially by UWRET on the recommendation of the Faculty of Medicine, provided that a suitable candidate is forthcoming.
2. The scholarship can only be held by a Welsh-speaking student who is a native of South Wales,¹ including Monmouthshire. Each candidate will be required to furnish two certificates of good character and to satisfy the authorities of the Cardiff University School of Medicine that he/she is able to speak the Welsh language.
3. The scholarship will be held in the Cardiff University School of Medicine by a student preparing for the degrees of MB BCh during the three years immediately following the completion of the first two years of the five-year programme.
4. The scholarship will be of the annual value of £1,000.²
5. The scholarship will be awarded on the result of the University examinations held in years 1 and 2 in the subject areas related to anatomical and physiological studies, supplemented by such special tests then applied in these subjects as the examiners may in their discretion think fit.
6. The scholarship will not be awarded if no candidate is considered by the examiners to be of sufficient merit.
7. The tenure of the scholarship from year to year will be conditional upon the receipt by UWRET of a satisfactory report of the progress and conduct of the scholar from the Cardiff University School of Medicine.³

These regulations are formed on the basis of the original bequest. When making an award, Trustees may apply discretion and interpret the bequest for modern times.

1. South Wales shall, in this instance, be defined by the borders of the old county of Glamorgan.
2. The actual value of the award will be subject to available funds.
3. Proportionate and subject to available funds
