

The D Lloyd Thomas Memorial Scholarship

This Scholarship is provided from the income of a gift made to the University of Wales in June, 1989 by the family and friends of the late D Lloyd Thomas BSc PhD (London), a native of Maesteg, a graduate of the University and sometime teacher at Imperial College, London.

1. A scholarship, called the D Lloyd Thomas Memorial Scholarship, of the value of approximately £1000,<sup>1</sup> shall be awarded from time to time by UWRET, provided that a suitable candidate is forthcoming.
2. The scholarship shall be available, normally for a three year period, at Aberystwyth University and Swansea University in rotation.<sup>2</sup>
3. Candidates for the scholarship shall be Welsh-speaking, shall have been accepted for admission to an undergraduate degree scheme at the relevant institution, and shall be able to satisfy the matriculation requirements of the Institution. In addition they shall either have been born, or have been resident, within the County of Mid-Glamorgan. Preference shall be given to any such candidate who has been born, or has been resident, within the Maesteg area (as defined by the boundaries of the Borough of Ogwr).
4. In the event of there being a number of candidates for the scholarship able to satisfy the conditions of Regulation 3 above, the award of the scholarship shall be determined on the basis of candidates' relative performances in the GCE Advanced Level or equivalent examination.
5. No scholarship shall be awarded except to a candidate of sufficient merit.
6. A student who has already entered upon a scheme of study for a degree of the Institution shall not be eligible for an award.
7. Subject to receipt by UWRET of a satisfactory report from the institution of the conduct and progress of the Scholar at the end of each academic year, the scholarship shall be renewable for a further two years.<sup>3</sup>
8. In the event that a scholarship is not awarded in a particular year, any accumulated income from the Fund shall be added to the capital sum and the next competition for the award shall be held in the following year.
9. In the event that a scholarship is not awarded for three consecutive years due to there being no eligible candidates, the residential qualification laid down in Paragraph 3 may be waived to enable an award to be made in the following year.
10. Applications should be submitted to the Registrar of the relevant Institution, not later than 15th September in that year.
