

The Price Davies Scholarships - Entrance

The Price Davies Scholarships (which also incorporates the Price Davies Postgraduate Scholarship) are provided from the income of a bequest made to the University of Wales in 1900 by the late Mr Price Davies of Leeds.

Entrance Scholarships

1. Three scholarships, called Price Davies Scholarships, each of the annual value of £400¹, shall be offered for competition each year.
2. The scholarships shall be available annually on the results of the Entrance Scholarships Examination² held at Aberystwyth University and, subject to the receipt by UWRET of a satisfactory report from the Institution of the conduct and progress of the scholar at the end of each academic year, shall be tenable for three years,³ with possible renewal for a fourth year.
3. The award of a scholarship shall be conditional upon a successful candidate qualifying to matriculate in the Institution. A student who has already entered upon a scheme of study for a degree in the Institution shall not be eligible for candidature.
4. No scholarship shall be awarded except to a candidate of adequate merit.
5. One of the conditions of holding a Price Davies Scholarship under this section shall be the pursuance of a scheme of study for an initial degree in Arts or in Science at Aberystwyth University.
6. Applications for particulars with regard to the examination, and for admission to the examination, shall be made to the Registrar of Aberystwyth University.
7. Every candidate to whom a scholarship is awarded must, within three weeks of the publication of the results of the examination, inform the Registrar of the Institution of his/her acceptance or non-acceptance of the scholarship.

These regulations are formed on the basis of the original bequest. When making an award, Trustees may apply discretion and interpret the bequest for modern times.

1. The actual value of the award will be subject to available funds.
2. Where applicable
3. Proportionate and subject to available funds
